

AAGA is conducting a toy drive to help support families and children in need this holiday season. Please donate a new toy and put a smile on a child during this holiday season.

All toys will be donated to children in need through, local non-profit, Community Counseling of Bristol County

For more information about Community Counseling of Bristol County and the services they offer please visit them online at www.comcounseling.org

